

GO FOR THE GOLD

STUDY GUIDE

NUGGETS OF TRUTH - What can I learn from Go for the Gold?

Mom, Dad, and Grandparents are resource people who share good advice when I ask for it.

An uncontrolled desire for money and things can wreck my life.

I need to be loyal to my friends.

No matter what, I must respect others.

I can live my faith every day, not just at church on Sunday.

Life is an adventure filled with exciting challenges for those who get off the couch, turn off the TV, and do something.

The library is filled with good stuff. Visit often. Explore. Investigate. Learn. Read.

UNCOVERING CLUES - Getting smarter about life.

Why should Henry consider his Mom and Dad good sources for advice?

Name some people who helped Henry in the story. Who can you ask for help?

Henry shared his faith with Anita Justice. Why is sharing our faith difficult?

Is it ever OK to be scared? What should I do when I'm afraid?

What would you do with a treasure chest filled with gold?

DIGGING DEEPER - Consulting God's Word for answers.

What does the Bible say about our parents? (Exodus 20:12, Ephesians 6:1-3)

What is the Golden Rule? (Matthew 7:12) How did Henry practice this rule?

What did Paul mean when he wrote "the love of money is a root of all sorts of evil" (I Timothy 6:10)? Can you give examples from Go for the Gold of people loving money and making bad choices? How did their choices hurt others?

Chuck was concerned for Henry's safety and checked for danger before letting his friend enter the cave. How should we treat our friends? (Proverbs 17:17, Proverbs 27:10)

Grandpa's advice to Henry was "always tell the truth". Does that work in real life? (Leviticus 19:11, Ephesians 4:25)

Henry found himself in trouble and phoned home. Why is that a good choice? (Proverbs 1:5, Proverbs 1:8)

Copyright © 2013, John W. Nichols. All rights reserved.